

Cassie Trojan
SHORT BIO	As the number one fan of Apollo, one of the biggest popstars in the world, Cassie runs his top social media fan page. Miraculously, she finds herself face to face with her idol. In a turn of events, Apollo sexually assaults Cassie despite her steady refusal. Outraged with his actions, Cassie turns to the internet to release an expose, but she's confronted with Apollo's PR team who are working around the clock to destroy her reputation (and it's pretty effective). Cassie will do anything to reveal this heinous betrayal.

OTHER
Backstory	Growing up in a small town in Indiana, Cassie had all the time in the world to hyperfixate on her #1 idol, Apollo. As she runs one of their top fanpages, her and their team interact quite frequently, and in turn Cassie is invited to the first stop of their major world tour. Unfortunately, Cassie's first meeting with this idol turns sour when he sexually assaults her.
Defining Moment	The abuse Cassie experiences from her idol forces her to confront the truth of those with power and also reevaluate what she truly values rather than blindly following the latest pop trends.
Greatest Fear	To be ridiculed and disliked by a large group of people, which she confronts during her mission to expose the truth of the abuse she experienced.
Pet Peeves	People who talk loudly in public, People posting obscene and obviously fake rumors on the internet
One Random Fact	While she was on anesthesia from wisdom teeth removal, she sang pop songs to her technician, which she finds very embarrassing in retrospect since it contradicts her usually shy character.
Role in the Story	Protagonist
COMPS
Character examples in media	Rory Gilmore from Gilmore Girls- She's smart and studious, but also particularly naive to how the world works due to her sheltered upbringing. Lizzie McGuire from Lizzie McGuire- As a teenager, she has many preconceived notions of how she imagines the world operates and is confronted with a different reality.
